Claim No. 119.
Under Article 4. Treaty of 14th June 1866.
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Nancy Marshall,
aged 35, a Freedwoman of the Creek Nation, Widow, being duly examined and sworn, (she understanding & conversing in the English language) deposes and says:

Whilst living with her husband on their place, at Post Oak, Creek Nation, and sometime in December 1862, she was compelled by the presence of rebel Indians
and Guerrillas to abandon the same, and fly for safety;
that she left her home hastily, with her husband, and went to Gibson, where her husband enlisted as a Soldier in the 1st Indian Regt, and died in the service of small pox in 1864. This deponent further says that at the time of her flight from home her husband owned and possessed, and did unavoidably abandon and lose all the property hereinafter specified, and never thereafter
recovered the same, or any part thereof: To Say:

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also, the status of claimant. - The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive. - Upon inquiry, it is found, the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows: -

Hogs: $2.00 Each

Chickens, 1/2 12 1/2 "

and for the following one-half the claimed value:

House-furniture - $16.00

Fanning Tools. 12.00

In consideration of these, and all other facts, attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Nancy Marshall One hundred and thirteen dollars.
